

Invitation to DNA Workshop

the Small Grants program Forced Adoption services, Relationships Australia

Presenter: Kerri Small, founder of the Australian DNA Hub

Purpose: to gain an understanding of resources available through DNA tests and family history research. This is for people who could not identify their parent/s family of origin through mainstream methods.

Offered: understanding of DNA testing, and Internet search skills explained. A printed workbook will be available as well. Wifi connections are also available, so bring your laptop if you have one.

When: Saturday 21st October 2017

Meet for lunch at 11:30, courtesy of Relationships Australia NSW Forced Adoption Support Services, at the Lord Nelson Hotel, 19 Kent Street, The Rocks. Closest station is Wynyard, 2 blocks west to Kent Street then walk north along Kent Street. Approximately 10 minute walk.

Then we proceed to Society of Australian Genealogists 120 Kent Street, Sydney NSW 2000. The seminar, from 1-4 pm, is on the first floor, Richmond Villa seminar room. Tea and coffee will be available.

20 spaces available.
