Mercy in the Movies

A day's workshop with Richard Leonard sj

Pope Francis has said that the entire point of the Year of Mercy is about the mission of the Church to the world and in the world. Using film as both a lens into our culture and as an example of it, this spirituality day will look at the pivotal question of mission and identity for us.

Richard Leonard SJ is a well known author, film critic, columnist and director of the Australian Catholic Office for Film & Broadcasting. He has lectured on faith and culture all over the world. His published books include, Where the Hell is God? Why Bother Praying? What Are We Doing On Earth For Christ's Sake?
